INSIGHTS FOR EXPLORATION CLASS CREW MEDICAL OFFICERS

Abstract

INTRODUCTION: Exploration class missions are on the horizon. Profiling analogous populations can provide strong insights to aid in preparing the exploration class Crew Medical Officer (CMO) for the care they are responsible for delivering.

METHODS: Comparison of analogous learner populations to the CMO. RESULTS: Proposed educational and medical practice strategy for the CMO. CONCLUSION: This represents a key step in addressing the education and medical care responsibilities of the exploration class CMO.
